Description:

The TRAKK, new creative hub:

The TRAKK is a creative hub, supported by 3 partners : BEP, KIKK and University of Namur. The space, split across 3 floors, is a meeting space for different profiles and projects, offering the opportunity to rent an office space – private or within open spaces - , creative meeting rooms, an arena, and to access a fablab and its digital tools to materialize a project or attend any conference related to innovation.

The TRAKK is an open community : a network of enterprises and entrepreneurs of the cultural and creative sector, artists, developers, designers, students, researchers, engineers, creative coders, makers, hackers... all thriving to work together on concrete projects in order to bring solutions to challenges of the everyday life and environment.

At their disposal : office space / coworking space / creative rooms / arena space / innovation workshops / fablab.
